

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Armenian Community Council of the United Kingdom wishes to announce that the term of office of the current Community Council is now drawing to its end and the Council shall be appointing an independent Election Committee which will carry out the necessary arrangements for elections to be held for a new Council.

The names of the Election Committee will be announced shortly. The Committee shall write to all those members of the Community who are entitled to vote and shall announce the date of the elections. The Committee shall also invite submission of candidatures.

The preparation for the elections including the verification of the Electoral List and compilation of the Candidates List is carried out by the Election Committee. As in the previous three elections of the Community Council, the actual process of the postal voting including the distribution of unique ballot papers and the counting of votes shall be contracted out to the Electoral Reform Society of the United Kingdom.

Any member of the community who has registered with the Community Council and has paid his/her Community Contribution for the year 2016, and year 2017 if requests have been issued by the Registration and Community Contributions Committee of the ACC, shall be entitled to vote.

If any member of the Armenian community of the United Kingdom wishes to register or to verify his/her registration, they communicate with the Registrations Committee be emailing: registrations@accuk.org.uk

Full details of the Election process and community members' eligibility to vote and/or become candidates for election to the Council are set out in the Constitution of the Armenian Community. An emailed PDF copy can be obtained free of charge by application to accuk@accuk.org.uk
